

Crane U Impartiality Statement

At Crane U, we fully understand and recognize the critical importance of impartiality in all training, assessment, and related activities associated with NCCCO (National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators) certification.

We are committed to conducting all operations in a fair, unbiased, and objective manner, ensuring that every individual is treated equally, without influence or favoritism. Our instructors, evaluators, and staff maintain strict professional standards to avoid any conflicts of interest, uphold the integrity of the certification process, and preserve the trust of our clients and industry partners.

Crane U adheres to all NCCCO guidelines and ethical requirements, and we continuously review and improve our procedures to maintain the highest level of impartiality and transparency.
